

VILLA FLOR

THE HOUSE OF THE SEVEN ROOMS

This Villa is everything but ordinary. It combines decades of tradition with vintage furniture, Art Nouveau and modernity. Both, art enthusiasts and nature lovers will find an unconventional and unique home here on the edge of the Swiss National Park. All seven rooms are individually decorated and provide an artistic touch of colour. From pine panelling on the ceiling and turquoise painted walls with birch wallpaper to chequered patterns on the bed and a spacious, loft-like room, all art is tangible and visible throughout the villa. Famous artists such as Julian Schnabel, Philipp Keel and Nathalie Du Pasquier spend time here. Villa Flor regularly offers the walls of its corridors and halls for art exhibitions.
